Investors may not get back the amount they originally invested. MMF is not a guaranteed investment. An investment in MMF is different from investment in deposits, with particular reference to the risk that the principal invested is capable of fluctuation. Risk of loss of the principal is borne by the investor.

The MMF does not rely on external support for guaranteeing the liquidity of the MMF or stabilizing the NAV per unit share.

Performance is net of fees.

Portfolio composition is not exhaustive and may vary over time.
