Carmignac Investissement Latitude (UCITS) is a feeder fund of Carmignac Investissement, a global equity fund managed by Kristofer Barrett, that focuses on capturing long-term secular trends. While the strategy benefits from the master Fund's stock-picking, it may significantly reduce its exposure to market risks thanks to its flexible and active management of equity exposure. The Fund is a suitable solution for investors looking to benefit from the dynamism of global equity markets whilst maintaining a strong downside risk management to reduce market volatility. The Fund aims to outperform its reference indicator⁽¹⁾ over a recommended investment horizon of 5 years.

KEY POINTS

A core equity portfolio that invests in companies that create value through innovation, technology and a unique product offering.

A flexible and actively managed equity exposure ranging from 0% to 100%.

Harnessing the full potential of the master fund's allocation with a macro overlay to protect against downward pressure.

I always strive to fully exploit the Fund's dynamic nature. The return of inflation is the return of the economic cycle where truly active management will stand out even more as the recent years have shown.
