Want to know more about Carmignac Portfolio Flexible Bond?

The Fund at a glance

Carmignac Portfolio Flexible Bond is an international bond Fund with hedging against currency risk that seeks to outperform its reference indicator<sup>1</sup> while also generating positive performance over an investment horizon of at least three years. The Fund is fully equipped with the tools required to generate performance in a range of market configurations.

For whom?

Investors seeking steady performance and controlled volatility on the bond markets.

Why?

This approach has already been tested in environments of rising and falling interest rates: the portfolio managers joined Carmignac over two years ago but have been working together on the same strategy for over eight years.

How?

Their fundamentally flexible approach combines a vast investment universe, active management of modified duration, and a rigorous selection of issuers.

Did you know?

Carmignac Portfolio Flexible Bond implements a socially responsible investment approach that has seen it achieve Article 8 classification under the SFDR as well as the French SRI Label in September 2021<sup>2</sup>.
